LB 198 A

SENATOR VENDITTE: Mr. President, a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: State your point to the Chair.

SENATOR VENDITTE: Mr. President, I would ask unanimous consent that we would take up the rest of the motions. I think our half hour that has been allocated to this is just about up and I would ask unanimous consent that we finish the last two items.

PRESIDENT: Well, that's not a point of personal privilege. Would you discuss that with the Speaker?

SENATOR VENDITTE: I did, Mr. President. I did discuss this with the Speaker and I guess I would...

PRESIDENT: It's not a point of personal privilege. It doesn't fall within (interruption).

SENATOR VENDITTE: Point of order.

PRESIDENT: It's not a point of order.

SENATOR VENDITTE: How is it then, Mr. President, that we can...

PRESIDENT: Do you want to overrule the... Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: As I said when we started out I would hope that we would not take so much time that we couldn't finish these motions because they keep piling up. We've got to take them sooner or later so I would request that we do continue.

PRESIDENT: We'll continue unless... The Speaker has ordered that we shall continue. We take up Senator Maxey's bill, LB 198 A.

CLERK: (Read Maxey's motion found on page 1305 of the Journal.)

SENATOR MAXEY: Mr. President, and fellow Senators, I'd like to bring LB 198 A back to correct the fiscal note. This bill started off last year and unfortunately we have lost some people and so I'd like to decrease it by $76,561. I move that we return LB 198 A back.

PRESIDENT: Record your vote. Record.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays on the motion to return, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The amendment is returned. Senator Maxey.

SENATOR MAXEY: Mr. President, I move to amend LB 198 A with the correct fiscal impact.

PRESIDENT: Record your vote. Record.

SENATOR MAXEY: Mr. President, I move to advance LB 198 A back to E & R Engrossment.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays on the adoption of Senator Maxey's amendment, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The amendment is adopted and you've heard Senator Maxey's motion. All in favor say aye. Contrary say nay. The bill is readvanced. We have a change in the agenda. Mr. Clerk.
